

Sermon Notes May 23

Following God's Gospel Lead

Acts 8:26-40

On occasion, you will feel compelled to do something out of the ordinary. That call on your life may be coming from _____.

Acts 8:26 An _____ called _____ to leave his ministry and go south to Judea. The _____ told him specifically "Go to that chariot and stay near it."

When you are serving the Lord you may be asked to do things that you never imagined possible. There is a call to come to Christ for salvation; but also a call to a _____ walk with God within the inner circle of the very presence of God to do His will.

God doesn't call us to serve Him only when it's _____. Acts shows us that the greatest ministry occurred when things were inconvenient. Sometimes the greatest _____ are the fruit of the greatest _____.

Acts 8:27-35 To every lost and thirsty soul, Christ says, "_____ unto me." To every redeemed soul, Christ says, "_____ for me."

Philip had a _____ - prepared event awaiting him there.

Who is it referring to in Isaiah 53:7-8? _____

God ordained appointments: Someone whom God has _____ to become a follower of Christ.

Philip had said yes to God earlier in smaller things.

Being a _____.

Sharing his faith with the hated _____.

He now was prepared to be used in bigger things.

Acts 8:36-40

God had been _____ the Ethiopian's heart so that he had a desire to understand the Bible and to know God. When this man _____ the Truth, he believed. He immediately sought _____.

Baptism does not save but sets you apart for _____ things.

Philip found himself in Azotus on the other side of Israel along the coast. The Ethiopian Eunuch continued his journey taking the Gospel back to _____.

Never be satisfied with just attending church. Ask for and follow God for the more abundant life.